226/2006

Hon'ble J.C.S. Rawat, J.

It was pointed out by the learned counsel for the petitioner that in the instant case the accused was not arrested by the C.B.I. and chargesheet was submitted with the prayer to issue the process against the accused/applicant. The learned Special Judge issued the non-bailable warrant against the accused/applicant. Learned counsel for the petitioner prayed and is permitted to withdraw the petition and the petition is accordingly dismissed as withdrawn. However, the trial court is directed to dispose of the bail application moved by the petitioner expeditiously without waste of time without being influenced by the order of issuing warrant by the court.
